U.S.A. PATRIOT ACT IDENTITY VERIFICATION NOTICE

Important information about procedures for opening a new PSECU account.

To help our government fight the funding of terrorism and stop money-laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions, including PSECU, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) (usually your Social Security Number) and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying document(s). The law requires us to maintain records of the identification verification and periodically update this information.

Please be assured that the same strict confidentiality of your information maintained by PSECU will be continued as required under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Privacy Act and PSECU's Privacy Policy.

Politically Exposed Person

The expression "politically exposed person" ("PEP") applies to persons, their families, and close associates who perform important public functions for a foreign country, which would include a Senior Foreign Political Figure.

Examples of "Politically Exposed Persons"

Heads of state (foreign countries), cabinet ministers, political party leaders, influential executives in nationalized industries or under government administration, senior judicial or military officials, and members of ruling families, among others.
